

There's a Light at the End of the Darkness

There's a light at the end of the darkness,
A twinkle of hope, gonna lead me through the sadness.
Happiness, it waits like a tiger,
Ready to pounce and make me happier.
Like an ember it grows to a fire.
Positivity brings you higher.
Passion pumps through my veins growing stronger,
For me hatred has no power.
Hope, it's the word that keeps me afloat,
Even when my mind wanders deep down below.
Down the dangerous road,
Because,
There's a light at the end of the darkness
A twinkle of hope, gonna lead me through the sadness.
We'll follow it!
To the greatest heights,
The world can't stop me now
It tries to bring me down but I'll just go higher...
