My Poem of Kindness

Kindness is like glue, because when you give kindness, it sticks to you.

Kindness is as easy as learning how to ride a bike.

Kindness is cheerful, happy, and joyful.

Kindness can make a smile, a heart, and a loving hug.

Kindness is as sweet as an apple.

Kindness is friendship.

Kindness spreads positivity.

Kindness wins over negativity and pain.

Kindness makes a frown go upside down.

Kindness is love.

Kindness is sharing memories with friends and family.

Kindness is when you help someone or make someone's day.

That is what kindness means to me.
